

Guidelines for Submission of “SAHRS Early Graduate Student Researcher Award” Nominations

Name of the Award:

The name of the award shall be “SAHRS Early Graduate Student Researcher Award”

Objectives of the Award:

The Early Graduate Student Researcher Award will be presented students for conducting outstanding research early in their graduate training. It focuses on both the student’s general research experience and specific completed research projects.

Validity:

A nomination is valid for one year only. In case candidate is not selected during the year, there is no provision for nomination to be carried forward for the next year, however re-nomination is permitted.

Criteria:

1. The applicant currently enrolled in a doctoral program in related discipline at an accredited university located in India.
2. Have not yet proposed their dissertation at the time of the application deadline.
3. Be an SAHRS student member or apply for SAHRS student membership before the award application deadline.
4. To ensure geographic diversity, a maximum of one student per department will be selected for an Early Graduate Student Researcher Award per year, but departments are not limited in the number of applications that may be submitted each year.
5. Individuals may apply in more than one year if they continue to meet eligibility requirements and were not previous winners.

Selection Procedure:

All the valid nominations, based on the subject area of the research will be considered by the respective sectional committees of the society.

The minimum cut-off markers will be 60%. If the candidate is not achieved 60% mark, then his/her application will be automatically rejected. If single application is received and has score of 60% or more then it will be considered.

THE AWARDEE WILL BE HONOURED WITH A CERTIFICATE ON THE OCCASION OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE YEAR.
